Definitions

LSVN	means Lynwood School of Veterinary Nursing.
Responsible Persons	means Heads of School

Policy

This policy outlines what is acceptable and unacceptable behaviour when using social media to include blogs, message boards, chat rooms, online forums, social networking sites and other sites and services that permit users to share information with others in a disdainful manner.

Any use of social media should not:

- Damage the reputation of the business or any of its students or employees.
- Post commentary, content or images that are pornographic, proprietary, harassing, slanderous or that can create a hostile environment.
- Publish, post, or release any information that is considered confidential or not public. If there are questions about what is considered confidential, employees should check with Heads of School.
- Interfere with employee's responsibilities at Lynwood School of Veterinary Nursing.
- Use personal social media networks on the Lynwood School of Veterinary Nursing IT equipment.

Staff are unable to accept social media links on their private accounts from students.

Subject to applicable law, online activity that violates the Lynwood School of Veterinary Nursing's code of conduct may result in a student receiving a non- academic disciplinary action.

Students need to know and adhere to the Lynwood School of Veterinary Nursing's policies and procedures and the RCVS Fitness to Practise guide when using social media.

SCHOOL OF VETERINARY NURSING

Students should be aware that Lynwood School of Veterinary Nursing may observe content and information made available by students through social media. Students should use their best judgement in posting material that is neither inappropriate nor harmful to Lynwood School of Veterinary Nursing, its employees, or students.
