Policy Statement

The Lynwood School of Veterinary Nursing (LSVN) are committed to practices that protect our learners (and specifically young adults on our programmes) from the risk of harm, radicalisation and exploitation. Staff and other associates working with LSVN must recognise our common responsibilities to develop an awareness of the issues that may cause our learners harm and adopt appropriate safeguarding practices to minimise the chances of abuse, including those dangers identified in the Prevent duty guidance.

Statutory guidance influencing this policy

'Keeping children safe in education' (September 2018)

'Working together to safeguard children', (July 2018)

'Prevent duty guidance for LSVN education institutions in England and Wales' (2015)

The purpose of the policy is to:

Provide protection for learners on programmes managed by LSVN to ensure their welfare and to underline our commitment to the Prevent duty.

Definitions

For the purposes of this policy and associated procedures, young people are any learners under the age of 18 years and we accept the definition of an adult at risk as "a person who is or may be in need of community care services by reason of mental or other disability, age or illness; and who is or may be unable to take care of him or herself, or unable to protect him or herself against harm or exploitation" (Department of Health, 2000). We also recognise the additional wider indications of potential vulnerability as outlined in Annex A of the statutory guidance document – Keeping Children Safe in Education – September 2018.

Our principles

LSVN recognises that:

- the welfare of the learner is paramount.
- all learners, regardless of age, disability, gender, racial heritage, religious belief, sexual orientation or identity, have the right to equal protection from all types of harm or abuse.
- it is always unacceptable for a learner to experience abuse of any kind and recognises its responsibility to safeguard the welfare of all learners by commitment to practice that protects them.
- working in partnership with learners and with other agencies is essential in promoting a safe learning environment
- responding to the Prevent duty requires particular vigilance in view of the severe threat to UK security

What we will do

We will ensure our learners are safeguarded by: -

- ensuring that staff have read and understand Part One and Annex A of Keeping Children Safe in Education
- providing staff and our associates with guidance on procedures they should adopt to minimise the risk of harm to learners and, in the event that they suspect a learner may be experiencing or be at risk of harm, to offer guidance on appropriate action. We have a simple flow chart of the actions we take.
- ensuring that training for staff and associates helps learners to understand how to keep themselves safe from the wide range of harm to which they may be subject
- ensuring that staff recognise, and can respond appropriately, where abuse is suspected
- raising the awareness of staff and learners of contextual safeguarding
- being aware of the increased availability of drugs in the contexts in which we work
- publishing to staff and volunteers a Staff Code of Conduct.
- sharing information about concerns with agencies who need to know, and involving parents/carers and learners appropriately.
- ensuring that the Disclosure and Barring Service, in accordance with their guidelines, checks all staff undertaking regulated activity
- making all new staff and associates aware of our child protection procedures and policies through effective induction and on-going reinforcement training.
- appointing at least two designated persons to enable any concerns to be reported in accordance with our procedures.
- reviewing our policy and good practice at regular intervals
- recruiting staff safely through an effective staff recruitment process
